LEGAL GUIDE TO INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR STATUS

BY ROBERT W. WOOD

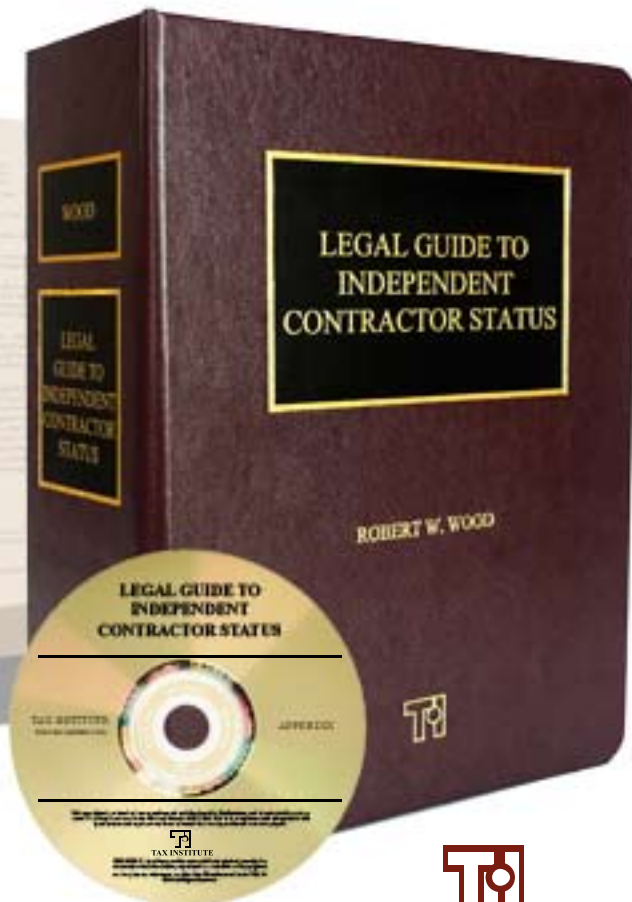

The battleground of employee vs. independent contractor status is burgeoning. Worker status disputes can involve taxing authorities, government labor and employment authorities, third-party suits against the company, and disputes between the company and the workers themselves. This book addresses these issues and expands upon the previous editions' insight.

“Wood’s new treatise summarizes the breadth and complexity of the worker classification issue.”

- Tax Notes

Highlights Include:

- A bonus companion CD that includes the full text of the Appendix in an easy-to-search format that is particularly helpful for new drafts.
- New court rulings and legislative developments relevant to the field.
